

The A. P. of L. Weekly News Letter contains a full summary of labor news, market news, and other information that will benefit the trade union movement.

NON-UNION FORGES BROKEN BY HATTERS

Danbury, Conn., Aug. 11.—Eight hat companies have withdrawn from the Danbury hat makers' union, claiming that the organization has received $100,000 in federal subsidies. The hat makers' union has been in a bitter struggle with the United Hatters of North America since 1935.

The strike started last June when the hat makers refused to accept a new wage schedule. The hat makers' union has been in a bitter struggle with the United Hatters of North America since 1935.

The latest demand was made on the hat makers' union by the United Hatters of North America. The hat makers' union has been in a bitter struggle with the United Hatters of North America since 1935.

The hat makers' union has been in a bitter struggle with the United Hatters of North America since 1935.

BOILER MAKERS ACTIVE

Bellingham, Wash., Aug. 11.—Boiler makers employed at the Bellingham shipyard are active in their efforts to organize a union. The shipyard is owned by the United States Navy.

The boiler makers' union has been in a bitter struggle with the shipyard since 1935.

STRIKEBREAKERS OBJECT

Washington, Aug. 11.—Angrus has filed a suit with the Washington National Guard to prevent the use of strikebreakers. The suit is based on the National Labor Relations Act.

The National Labor Relations Board has been in a bitter struggle with the National Guard since 1935.

REVIEW MONEY CASES.

Springfield, Mass., Aug. 11.—The Industrial Relations Commission has reviewed the money cases of the Springfield hat makers' union. The commission has found that the union has been in a bitter struggle with the hat makers since 1935.

The hat makers' union has been in a bitter struggle with the hat makers since 1935.

BONUS SHAM EXPOSED.

Topoka, Kan., Aug. 11.—The Atchafalaya dam project has been exposed as a sham. The project is owned by the United States Army.

The Atchafalaya dam project has been in a bitter struggle with the United States Army since 1935.

CANNERS' WAGES INCREASED

San Jose, Cal., Aug. 11.—The Santa Clara valley canneries have agreed to a wage increase. The canneries are owned by the United States Navy.

The canneries have been in a bitter struggle with the United States Navy since 1935.

"MASTER AND SERVANT" THEORY KNOCKED OUT

Indianapolis, Aug. 11.—The public service commission of this state has ruled that the "master and servant" theory is not valid. The commission has found that the theory is based on the National Labor Relations Act.

The National Labor Relations Board has been in a bitter struggle with the public service commission since 1935.

UNIONISTS VICTIMIZED

Memphis, Tenn., Aug. 11.—Organized laborers have been victimized by the Memphis city government. The city government is owned by the United States Army.

The Memphis city government has been in a bitter struggle with the United States Army since 1935.

ACCEPT NEW CONTRACT

Memphis, Tenn., Aug. 11.—The Memphis city government has accepted a new contract with the Memphis city government. The contract is based on the National Labor Relations Act.

The Memphis city government has been in a bitter struggle with the Memphis city government since 1935.

The A. P. of L. Weekly News Letter contains a full summary of labor news, market news, and other information that will benefit the trade union movement.

METAL MINES CONTROL URGED BY MISS RANKIN

Washington, Aug. 11.—Federal control of metal mines is urged by Miss Rankin, a member of the House of Representatives. She has introduced a bill to that effect.

Miss Rankin has been in a bitter struggle with the metal mines since 1935.

LABOR LAW IS UPHELD BY PENN. GOVERNOR

Harrisburg, Pa., Aug. 11.—Governor Pennock has upheld the labor law of this state. The law is based on the National Labor Relations Act.

The National Labor Relations Board has been in a bitter struggle with the Pennsylvania Governor since 1935.

STRIKEBREAKERS OBJECT

Washington, Aug. 11.—Angrus has filed a suit with the Washington National Guard to prevent the use of strikebreakers. The suit is based on the National Labor Relations Act.

The National Labor Relations Board has been in a bitter struggle with the National Guard since 1935.

REVIEW MONEY CASES.

Springfield, Mass., Aug. 11.—The Industrial Relations Commission has reviewed the money cases of the Springfield hat makers' union. The commission has found that the union has been in a bitter struggle with the hat makers since 1935.

The hat makers' union has been in a bitter struggle with the hat makers since 1935.

BONUS SHAM EXPOSED.

Topoka, Kan., Aug. 11.—The Atchafalaya dam project has been exposed as a sham. The project is owned by the United States Army.

The Atchafalaya dam project has been in a bitter struggle with the United States Army since 1935.

CANNERS' WAGES INCREASED

San Jose, Cal., Aug. 11.—The Santa Clara valley canneries have agreed to a wage increase. The canneries are owned by the United States Navy.

The canneries have been in a bitter struggle with the United States Navy since 1935.

"MASTER AND SERVANT" THEORY KNOCKED OUT

Indianapolis, Aug. 11.—The public service commission of this state has ruled that the "master and servant" theory is not valid. The commission has found that the theory is based on the National Labor Relations Act.

The National Labor Relations Board has been in a bitter struggle with the public service commission since 1935.

UNIONISTS VICTIMIZED

Memphis, Tenn., Aug. 11.—Organized laborers have been victimized by the Memphis city government. The city government is owned by the United States Army.

The Memphis city government has been in a bitter struggle with the United States Army since 1935.

ACCEPT NEW CONTRACT

Memphis, Tenn., Aug. 11.—The Memphis city government has accepted a new contract with the Memphis city government. The contract is based on the National Labor Relations Act.

The Memphis city government has been in a bitter struggle with the Memphis city government since 1935.

The A. P. of L. Weekly News Letter contains a full summary of labor news, market news, and other information that will benefit the trade union movement.

LABOR LAW IS UPHELD BY PENN. GOVERNOR

Harrisburg, Pa., Aug. 11.—Governor Pennock has upheld the labor law of this state. The law is based on the National Labor Relations Act.

The National Labor Relations Board has been in a bitter struggle with the Pennsylvania Governor since 1935.

STRIKEBREAKERS OBJECT

Washington, Aug. 11.—Angrus has filed a suit with the Washington National Guard to prevent the use of strikebreakers. The suit is based on the National Labor Relations Act.

The National Labor Relations Board has been in a bitter struggle with the National Guard since 1935.

REVIEW MONEY CASES.

Springfield, Mass., Aug. 11.—The Industrial Relations Commission has reviewed the money cases of the Springfield hat makers' union. The commission has found that the union has been in a bitter struggle with the hat makers since 1935.

The hat makers' union has been in a bitter struggle with the hat makers since 1935.

BONUS SHAM EXPOSED.

Topoka, Kan., Aug. 11.—The Atchafalaya dam project has been exposed as a sham. The project is owned by the United States Army.

The Atchafalaya dam project has been in a bitter struggle with the United States Army since 1935.

CANNERS' WAGES INCREASED

San Jose, Cal., Aug. 11.—The Santa Clara valley canneries have agreed to a wage increase. The canneries are owned by the United States Navy.

The canneries have been in a bitter struggle with the United States Navy since 1935.

"MASTER AND SERVANT" THEORY KNOCKED OUT

Indianapolis, Aug. 11.—The public service commission of this state has ruled that the "master and servant" theory is not valid. The commission has found that the theory is based on the National Labor Relations Act.

The National Labor Relations Board has been in a bitter struggle with the public service commission since 1935.

UNIONISTS VICTIMIZED

Memphis, Tenn., Aug. 11.—Organized laborers have been victimized by the Memphis city government. The city government is owned by the United States Army.

The Memphis city government has been in a bitter struggle with the United States Army since 1935.

ACCEPT NEW CONTRACT

Memphis, Tenn., Aug. 11.—The Memphis city government has accepted a new contract with the Memphis city government. The contract is based on the National Labor Relations Act.

The Memphis city government has been in a bitter struggle with the Memphis city government since 1935.

The A. P. of L. Weekly News Letter contains a full summary of labor news, market news, and other information that will benefit the trade union movement.

"BLIND" EMPLOYERS BLAMED FOR STRIKE

Seattle, Aug. 11.—The Evening Star has blamed the "blind" employers for the strike. The employers are owned by the United States Army.

The United States Army has been in a bitter struggle with the "blind" employers since 1935.

OPPRESSORS ESCAPE; CENSURE FOR VICTIMS

Adelaide, South Australia, Aug. 11.—Persons who are blind to the oppressors have escaped. The oppressors are owned by the United States Army.

The United States Army has been in a bitter struggle with the oppressors since 1935.

WANT "MORE COOKS" FOR LOG HOUSES

San Francisco, Aug. 11.—The Labor Union has wanted more cooks for log houses. The log houses are owned by the United States Army.

The United States Army has been in a bitter struggle with the log houses since 1935.

EMPLOYERS DRY 'WOLF' WHEN WORKERS STRIKE

Chicago, Aug. 11.—The employers have dried the workers when they strike. The workers are owned by the United States Army.

The United States Army has been in a bitter struggle with the workers since 1935.

STEEL EARNINGS LARGE

New York, Aug. 11.—The steel earnings are large. The steel is owned by the United States Army.

The United States Army has been in a bitter struggle with the steel since 1935.

LABOR NOT SCARE HERE

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 11.—The labor is not scared here. The labor is owned by the United States Army.

The United States Army has been in a bitter struggle with the labor since 1935.

WANTS WOMAN JURY

San Francisco, Aug. 11.—The woman jury is wanted. The jury is owned by the United States Army.

The United States Army has been in a bitter struggle with the woman jury since 1935.

RAISE WAGES 16 2/3 PERCENT

Bellingham, Wash., Aug. 11.—The wages are raised 16 2/3 percent. The wages are owned by the United States Army.

The United States Army has been in a bitter struggle with the wages since 1935.

The A. P. of L. Weekly News Letter contains a full summary of labor news, market news, and other information that will benefit the trade union movement.

WHOLE NO. 332

The A. P. of L. Weekly News Letter contains a full summary of labor news, market news, and other information that will benefit the trade union movement.

BOILER MAKERS ACTIVE

Bellingham, Wash., Aug. 11.—Boiler makers employed at the Bellingham shipyard are active in their efforts to organize a union. The shipyard is owned by the United States Navy.

The boiler makers' union has been in a bitter struggle with the shipyard since 1935.

STRIKEBREAKERS OBJECT

Washington, Aug. 11.—Angrus has filed a suit with the Washington National Guard to prevent the use of strikebreakers. The suit is based on the National Labor Relations Act.

The National Labor Relations Board has been in a bitter struggle with the National Guard since 1935.

REVIEW MONEY CASES.

Springfield, Mass., Aug. 11.—The Industrial Relations Commission has reviewed the money cases of the Springfield hat makers' union. The commission has found that the union has been in a bitter struggle with the hat makers since 1935.

The hat makers' union has been in a bitter struggle with the hat makers since 1935.

BONUS SHAM EXPOSED.

Topoka, Kan., Aug. 11.—The Atchafalaya dam project has been exposed as a sham. The project is owned by the United States Army.

The Atchafalaya dam project has been in a bitter struggle with the United States Army since 1935.

CANNERS' WAGES INCREASED

San Jose, Cal., Aug. 11.—The Santa Clara valley canneries have agreed to a wage increase. The canneries are owned by the United States Navy.

The canneries have been in a bitter struggle with the United States Navy since 1935.

"MASTER AND SERVANT" THEORY KNOCKED OUT

Indianapolis, Aug. 11.—The public service commission of this state has ruled that the "master and servant" theory is not valid. The commission has found that the theory is based on the National Labor Relations Act.

The National Labor Relations Board has been in a bitter struggle with the public service commission since 1935.

UNIONISTS VICTIMIZED

Memphis, Tenn., Aug. 11.—Organized laborers have been victimized by the Memphis city government. The city government is owned by the United States Army.

The Memphis city government has been in a bitter struggle with the United States Army since 1935.

ACCEPT NEW CONTRACT

Memphis, Tenn., Aug. 11.—The Memphis city government has accepted a new contract with the Memphis city government. The contract is based on the National Labor Relations Act.

The Memphis city government has been in a bitter struggle with the Memphis city government since 1935.

The A. P. of L. Weekly News Letter contains a full summary of labor news, market news, and other information that will benefit the trade union movement.

WHOLE NO. 332

The A. P. of L. Weekly News Letter contains a full summary of labor news, market news, and other information that will benefit the trade union movement.

BOILER MAKERS ACTIVE

Bellingham, Wash., Aug. 11.—Boiler makers employed at the Bellingham shipyard are active in their efforts to organize a union. The shipyard is owned by the United States Navy.

The boiler makers' union has been in a bitter struggle with the shipyard since 1935.

STRIKEBREAKERS OBJECT

Washington, Aug. 11.—Angrus has filed a suit with the Washington National Guard to prevent the use of strikebreakers. The suit is based on the National Labor Relations Act.

The National Labor Relations Board has been in a bitter struggle with the National Guard since 1935.

REVIEW MONEY CASES.

Springfield, Mass., Aug. 11.—The Industrial Relations Commission has reviewed the money cases of the Springfield hat makers' union. The commission has found that the union has been in a bitter struggle with the hat makers since 1935.

The hat makers' union has been in a bitter struggle with the hat makers since 1935.

BONUS SHAM EXPOSED.

Topoka, Kan., Aug. 11.—The Atchafalaya dam project has been exposed as a sham. The project is owned by the United States Army.

The Atchafalaya dam project has been in a bitter struggle with the United States Army since 1935.

CANNERS' WAGES INCREASED

San Jose, Cal., Aug. 11.—The Santa Clara valley canneries have agreed to a wage increase. The canneries are owned by the United States Navy.

The canneries have been in a bitter struggle with the United States Navy since 1935.

"MASTER AND SERVANT" THEORY KNOCKED OUT

Indianapolis, Aug. 11.—The public service commission of this state has ruled that the "master and servant" theory is not valid. The commission has found that the theory is based on the National Labor Relations Act.

The National Labor Relations Board has been in a bitter struggle with the public service commission since 1935.

UNIONISTS VICTIMIZED

Memphis, Tenn., Aug. 11.—Organized laborers have been victimized by the Memphis city government. The city government is owned by the United States Army.

The Memphis city government has been in a bitter struggle with the United States Army since 1935.

ACCEPT NEW CONTRACT

Memphis, Tenn., Aug. 11.—The Memphis city government has accepted a new contract with the Memphis city government. The contract is based on the National Labor Relations Act.

The Memphis city government has been in a bitter struggle with the Memphis city government since 1935.